CHAIR'S MESSAGE

DR. RODNEY PALMER

DMIN, PHD, CTSS

The Department of Religion and Biblical Languages is fully committed to providing our students with a holistic ministry model, enabling them to contribute to the development of family, community, and church through training in theoretical knowledge and the practical application of a sound, Bible-based Christianity.

We are excited to announce the new curriculum collaboration between the BA Theology program and the MDiv program at Andrews University, designed to streamline your educational journey and empower you for future ministry endeavors! Through this collaboration, 15 credits will be shared between the BA Theology and MDiv programs, intended to reduce the student's time in the MDiv by approximately one semester.

Explore the array of programs meticulously crafted to prepare you for impactful Christian mission and ministry. Explore options, including our Bachelor of Arts in Theology and Bachelor of Arts in Religion programs, along with our Minors and Certificates. Our faculty comprises a diverse and dedicated team of scholars, educators, and mentors who bring knowledge, experience, and passion to the academic community.

We believe that the study of religion and biblical languages is not only intellectually stimulating but also relevant to our lives and communities. As you engage with diverse perspectives and explore new ideas, we hope you will deepen your faith and develop critical thinking skills, empathy, and a greater appreciation for the complexities of the world around us.

Title: Department Chair
Associate Professor of Religion
Office Location: BUL 124
E-mail: palmerr@andrews.edu
Office Phone: (269) 471-3178

Dr. Rodney Palmer is the chair of the Department of Religion and Biblical Languages and Associate Professor of Religion, specializing in Homiletics and Practical Theology. He is an ordained minister, a Formative Dialogue on Teaching Faculty Colleague, a Certified Trauma Support Specialist, an Advisory Board member for the International Center for Trauma Education and Care, a NetVUE Faculty Fellow, vice president of the Adventist Society of Religious Studies, and chair of the Undergraduate Council. Dr. Palmer was born in Jamaica and pastored in the Central Jamaica Conference of Seventh-day Adventists for nine years. Before coming to Andrews University, he served three years as a Senior Pastor in the Wisconsin Conference and as a Lake Union Conference Executive Committee member. He is married to Alyssa (J.D., UW-Madison), the Assistant VP for Student Life and Title IX Coordinator at AU. The Palmers are the proud parents of Luke and Emerson. His research agenda and published peer-reviewed articles focus on trauma-informed approaches to preaching and higher education, multigenerational preaching, and the development of calling in first-generation college students.

Erhard Gallos

Education:

PhD, Andrews University
MA, Newbold College, England

Title: Assistant Professor of Religion
Office Location: Buller Hall 122
E-mail: gallos@andrews.edu
Phone: (269) 471-3186

Dr. Erhard Gallos is an assistant professor of Religion at Andrews University. He pastored in Germany for six years before coming to Andrews University. He joined the faculty in 2008 and teaches New Testament courses, Greek, Ethics, Hermeneutics, and SDA Heritage and the Gift of Prophecy. His focus of intense study has been in the book of Hebrews and his PhD dissertation was on the Sabbath-rest of Hebrews 4. In addition to being a passionate teacher and student of God's word, Erhard loves spending times with his wife, Irmgard and adult twin daughters, Dorothea and Christiane. In early 2020, Erhard Gallos wrote the Teachers Edition of the Adult Sabbath School for 2022. Recently, he finished the commentary on the Epistle of James for the Andrews Bible Commentary. He is currently writing a commentary on the book of 1 Thessalonians for the SDA International Commentary.

Rahel Wells

Education:

PhD, Wheaton College
MS, Biology, Andrews University
MA, Religion, Andrews University

Title: Professor of Biblical Studies
(Hebrew Bible)

Office Location: Buller Hall 117

E-mail: rschafer@andrews.edu

Phone: (269) 471-3184

A. Rahel Wells is passionate about God's Word and God's world, and seeks to combine these areas in teaching, scholarship, and ministry. Her current research focus areas include God's care for animals and the earth, metaphor in the Old Testament, composition of the Torah, bioethics, and the book of Deuteronomy. Along with various conference presentations on these topics, her recent publications include several journal articles and book chapters and three book projects in progress (including commentaries on Deuteronomy and Habakkuk for the new SDA International Bible Commentary). She wrote the commentary on the book of Esther for the Andrews Bible Commentary, and a book she co-edited and contributed to, Exploring the Composition of the Pentateuch, was published in 2020 by Eisenbrauns. Rahel loves to foster student research and collaborative conference presentations. She is also an active elder and youth leader at her church and the recent past president of the Adventist Theological Society. She is married to Bill Wells, and they love doing youth and young adult ministry together, as well as backpacking, cross-country skiing, and climbing mountains.

Paulo C. Oliveira

Education:

PhD, Fuller Theological Seminary
DMin, Andrews University
MDiv (Equivalency), Andrews University

Title: Assistant Professor of Religion

Office Location: BUL 120

E-mail:

oliveirap@andrews.edu

Phone: (269) 471-3867

Dr. Paulo C. Oliveira is an Assistant Professor of Religion in the area of Missiology. He brings his global perspective to contribute to understanding the church in contemporary culture. He is an ordained minister, and has over twenty-five years of on-the-ground ministry-missionary experience in Brazil, the United Arab Emirates (UAE), Oman, and the United States. Before joining Andrews University, he was developing a mission-driven church in Los Angeles. His scholarship looks at the intersection of digital society, faith, and emerging adults—young people from 18-29 years of age. He has conducted qualitative research among college students in the UAE, contributing to a better understanding of how their interactions in the digital space affect their Islamic faith and practice. His expertise and research interests include the fields of Missiology/Mission Studies, Islamic Studies, Cultural Anthropology, Digital Media and Religion, and Emerging Adulthood.

The Religion Major is designed as a two-major degree. Religion majors generally have a second major: their career or employment path. The Religion Major provides biblical depth and spiritual enrichment.

Therefore, each year Religion majors will combine their religion requirements and their second major requirements. Additionally, they will need to complete the ACE requirements for general education.

The Religion Major does not fulfill all Seminary prerequisites.

Students planning to attend Seminary should take a Theology major.

- Freshman= 100 or 200 level courses
- Sophomore= 200 or 300 level courses
- Junior= 300 or 400 level courses
- Senior= remaining courses

STUDENT OPPORTUNITIES

MANAGEMENT

RELIGION FORUM

All majors in Religion & Theology are required to attend the weekly Religion Forum on Tuesdays from 11:30 a.m. -12:20 p.m. in the Newbold Auditorium in Buller Hall. The Forum provides worship and fellowship, departmental information, training in various aspects of ministry, and lectures on various topics of interest for any university student. Religion Forum is a zero-credit practicum class; each semester requires registration and attendance for every theology and religion major. Because ministry involvement is part of religious education, Religion Forum also includes a ministry requirement or service hours each semester.

SCHOLARSHIP

BARNABAS INTERNSHIP

Many religion and theology students work as interns at a local church or conference each summer. This practical ministry experience helps students gain practical ministry skills while earning a scholarship for the following school year. All theology majors must complete one internship in order to satisfy the requirements for graduation. For more information, email religion@andrews.edu.

RELATIONSHIP

WORSHIP

IN-DEPTH PREACHING

Through in-DEPTH, we have scheduled and sent students to preach in churches throughout the Lake Union Conference (Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, and Wisconsin) and beyond. See Dr. Palmer for more information.

EVANGELISM

THETA ALPHA KAPPA (TAK)

This is the national honor society open to Theology and Religion majors with a 3.50 GPA in their major and a 3.0 GPA overall. Dr. Wells is the TAK sponsor.

ANDREWS MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

The AMA is the club for all theology and religion majors. The club is active in ministry on campus and the community. Since you are a member and will have club dues charged to your account, get involved and join the many activities for service, worship, and fellowship.

LEADERSHIP

PRACTICUM PROGRAM

The completion of the practicum program is compulsory for all theology majors, as this is the avenue through which students will practice and assimilate the seven core qualities that form the foundation of the pastoral profession, as outlined by the Ministerial Association of the North American Division of Seventh-day Adventists.
