

The Michigan Department of Civil Rights MI Response to Hate campaign and Kalamazoo County ALPACT present:

UNPACKING THE IMPACT OF HATE AND BIAS

Join MDCR's Community Engagement Team to examine the devastating impact of hate crimes and bias incidents on victims, their families and on entire communities.

THURSDAY MARCH 24, 2022 6-8 P.M.

LEARN FROM:

Rev. Wheeler Parker Jr., cousin of Emmett Till and eyewitness to his abduction, who will talk about the hate crime that helped catalyze the civil rights movement.

Author, motivational speaker and survivor Leslie King-Friday who will speak to the role of race, bias and violence in the horrors of human trafficking.

Register here to attend this ZOOM virtual event.

Only those attending via ZOOM may participate in the Q & A.

View the livestream of this event at Facebook.com/MIDCR.

ASL interpreters and live CART captioning will be provided for this event.

Advocates and Leaders for Police and Community Trust (ALPACT) brings together law enforcement and community leaders to build trust and facilitate communication and cooperation.

