COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Pre-intensive requirements:

1. Critical Book Review: Due Sunday, August 20

One book review of Duane Elmer's (Cross-Cultural Servanthood: Serving the World in Christlike Humility - CCS) will be submitted; The review is to be 1500-1750 words. It is important to note that this is NOT a book report. The majority of content in the review is for critique and analysis of the books; you can summarize the main points of the book, but must engage in analysis and critique of the main ideas. Follow the critical book review rubric.

2. Annotated Journal: Passport to Mission (PPM): Due Sunday, August 20

Each student will read the book Passport to Mission and write a report in form of a journal entry (reviewing/interacting) for the six parts (sections) of the book (total of 6 parts -28chapters). The report is due as per set schedule. The report/journal entry is to be 1500-1750 words and will respond to and interact with the subject of the parts of the book being revised.

One journal / report will be prepared and submitted. The journal entry/report should include (but not limited to) the following elements:

- A candid, energetic engagement and interaction with the material in each part of the book.
- Points that stood out or that were new ("Aha!" moments)
- Points of agreement or disagreement, and/or points needing clarification
- Statements of syntheses and conclusion that tie together with concepts dealt with in the classroom and/or studied in other required readings
- Applications of concepts to personal life and ministry
- General remarks about the material, affirming or suggesting possible changes/additions

Report: PPM: Parts 1-6 (chapters 1-28; pages 1-238).

Requirements during intensives:

1. Web Resource List: Due Wednesday, August 22

Each student will prepare a two (2-4) pages list of web mission resources (at least 20 entries). Try to list as many websites containing important resources dealing with cross-cultural missions, church and mission, mission strategies and resources, etc.

2. Ee-Taow Movie Report: Due Wednesday, August 22

Each student will prepare a half-page response with one key missiological idea that they gathered from the movie and how it can be applied to their own context of ministry.

3. Final Exam: The final exam will be on Thursday, August 24

Post-intensive requirements:

1. Critical Book Review: Introduction to Adventist Mission: Due Monday, November 20One book review of Gorden Doss' Introduction to Adventist Mission (IAM); the review is to be 2000 words. It is important to note that this is NOT a book report. The majority of content in the review is for critique and analysis of the books; you can summarize the main points of the book, but must engage in analysis and critique of the main ideas. Follow the rubric.

ATTENDANCE

Class Absences

"Whenever the number of absences exceeds 20% (10% for graduate classes) of the total course appointments, the teacher may give a failing grade. Merely being absent from campus does not exempt the student from this policy. Absences recorded because of late registration, suspension, and early/late vacation leaves are not excused. The class work missed may be made up only if the teacher allows. Three tardies are equal to one absence. Registered students are considered class members until they file a Change of Registration form in the Office of Academic records." (Current AU Bulletin.)

Class Attendance

"Regular attendance at all classes, laboratories and other academic appointments is required for each student. Faculty members are expected to keep regular attendance records. Whenever the number of absences exceeds 10% of the total course appointments, the teacher may give a failing grade. Merely being absent from campus does not exempt the student from this policy. Absences recorded because of late registration, suspension, and early/late vacation leaves are not excused. The class work missed may be made up only if the teacher allows. Three tardies are equal to one absence." Current AU Bulletin.)

Excused Absence

"Excuses for absences due to illness are granted by the teacher. Proof of illness is required. Residence hall students are required to see a nurse on the first day of any illness which interferes with class attendance. Non-residence hall students should show written verification of illness obtained from their own physician. Excuses for absences not due to illness are issued directly to the dean's office. Excused absences do not remove the student's responsibility to complete all requirements of a course. Class work is made up by permission of the teacher." (Current AU Bulletin.)

ABOUT YOUR INSTRUCTOR

Daniel M. Duffis was born on the Colombian island of San Andrés, but grew up as part of a missionary family on the Dutch Caribbean island of Curaçao. He holds an MDiv (2016) and is currently finalizing his PhD in Mission and Intercultural Theology.

Daniel currently works as the coordinator for Adventist Muslim Relations in the Metro-Detroit area of the United States. He formerly pastored and served as a missionary in Puerto Rico, Brazil, and New York. He is passionate about helping Christians build cultural intelligence and religious sensitivity when sharing the Gospel with those of other faith traditions.

OTHER COURSE-RELATED POLICIES

Academic Integrity

The Seminary expects its students to exhibit rigorous moral integrity appropriate to ministry leaders representing Jesus Christ. Complete honesty in academic matters is a vital component of such integrity. Any breach of academic integrity in this class is subject to discipline. Consequences may include receipt of a reduced or failing grade, suspension or dismissal from the course, suspension or dismissal from the program, expulsion from the university, or degree cancellation. Disciplinary action may be retroactive if academic dishonesty becomes apparent after the student leaves the course, program or university. A record of academic integrity violations is maintained by the University Student Academic Integrity Council. Repeated and/or flagrant offenses will be referred to an Academic Integrity Panel for recommendations on further penalties.

Academic Dishonesty includes:

- Plagiarism in which one fails to give credit every time use is made of another person's ideas or exact words, whether in a formal paper or in submitted notes or assignments. Credit is to be given by use of:
 - Correctly designed and inserted footnotes each time one makes use of another individual's research and/or ideas; and
 - O Quotation marks placed around any exact phrases or sentences (3 or more words) taken from the text or speech of another individual.
- Presenting another's work as one's own (e.g., placement exams, homework assignments);
- Using materials during a quiz or examination other than those explicitly allowed by the teacher or program;
- Stealing, accepting, or studying from stolen quizzes or examination materials;
- Copying from another student during a regular or take-home test or quiz;
- Assisting another in acts of academic dishonesty
- Submitting the same work or major portions thereof, without permission from the instructors, to satisfy the requirements of more than one course.

APPENDIX 1: INTERPRETING LETTER GRADES

THE B GRADE

The B grade is a sign that you have competently fulfilled all of the requirements stipulated for an assessment or competency evaluation. It is a very good grade and demonstrates a high level of the knowledge, insight, critical competence and professional presentation standards essential for an individual wishing to pursue a career as a professional leader in ministry.

THE A GRADE

An A grade is given only when a student not only fulfills the criteria for a B grade, but in doing so demonstrates an advanced academic aptitude for content knowledge, critique, synthesis and independent insight, while exhibiting highly developed communication skills and professional publication standards that would allow them to pursue a highly competitive academic career.

THE C GRADE

The C grade differs only from a B grade in that the traits outlined in the B grade above are not consistently applied. However, with diligence and by applying feedback from your lecturer, the academic process can provide opportunity for a student to improve their consistency, and hence, their grade.

THE D GRADE

The D grade points to a limited level of knowledge, insight, and critique, as well as to inadequate quality of written work. This may be because of a lack of time management on the part of the student, difficulty grasping the concepts being taught, use of English as a second language, or a personal issue that is affecting one's concentration and motivation levels. Again, with diligence, applying feedback from your lecturer, and seeking services offered by the University like the writing lab or the counseling center, the academic process can provide an opportunity for a student to significantly improve their performance.

THE F GRADE

A failing grade is given when very limited or no demonstrable competency has been observed or when the final assignment is not submitted within the dates indicated in the Course Overview Table.
