

Summit on Social Consciousness 2025:

Our Mental Health Crisis

MARCH 31–APRIL 1, 2025 | NEWBOLD AUDITORIUM, BULLER HALL

An estimated 26% of Americans aged 18 and older—about one in four adults—suffers from a diagnosable mental disorder in a given year (John Hopkins University, 2025).

Please participate in our campus-wide Mental Health Climate Survey. Deadline: 11:59 p.m., Wednesday, March 26.

Monday, March 31, 2025
Newbold Auditorium, 6 p.m.

Plenary Presentation—Harvey Burnett, PhD
“Our Mental Health in Crisis”

Interactive Discussions
Stacey Nicely, PhD and Karl Bailey, PhD
“The State of the University: Mental Health Reports”

Tuesday, April 1, 2025
Newbold Auditorium, 6 p.m.

Presentation—Willie Hucks, DMin
“The Benefits of Shabbat for a Stressed Community”

Panel Discussion
“Building Practical Responses to Our Mental Health Needs”

